

The Spark'Dwell Summer Intern

A Spark'Dwell summer intern will be responsible for communicating with service teams and community leaders, she/he/they will help organize the art of ministry during short-term service experience weeks, and will provide leadership with logistical organization and curriculum for Spark'Dwell's summer 2022 programming.

Job Responsibilities:

- Provides leadership during short-term service experience weeks, including overnight supervision for groups at the host site.
- Maintains a present demeanor and attitude with middle and high school students as they serve, reflect and grow spiritually.
- Engages with community leaders to think creatively and equitably about service.
- Organizes logistical material for groups; schedules, curriculum before and after service.
- Provides leadership and support at service sites.
- Communicates with The Dwelling Lead Pastor and partner organization SPARK's Executive Director and community with sensitivity, boldness, and grace.
- Assists in building Spark'Dwell's case for support through photos and documenting.

Work and Benefits:

- Pay: 8 weeks $2,080 ($260 per week) We have 6 weeks of programming with groups, the other 2 weeks are staff training and development.
- Housing is provided if not local.
- Meals are provided during short-term service experience weeks (14 per wk).

Intern Qualifications / Skills:

- Verbal communication
- Organization
- Professionalism
- Community focus
- Confidentiality
- An open presence toward ALL people
- Musical experience is a bonus but not a requirement.

Education and Experience:

Completed at least two undergraduate semesters or has equivalent experience in the following: ministry, community organizing, youth/college ministry. Must be 18 years or older.

To Apply:

Email Pastor Amber Harris and Pastor Emily Norris at: sparkdwell@thedwellingws.org. Your email should include the following:

- A paragraph about why you'd love to spend your summer with Spark'Dwell
- List any relevant skills or experiences that you know will make you a great addition to the team
- The name and contact information for at least one person we can connect with who will tell us incredible things about you
- A picture or video of you doing something that you love

Learn more about SPARK & The Dwelling at www.spark-community.org & www.thedwellingws.org